

MADEIRAS

“For hundred of years Madeira was one of the most popular and sought after wines in both Europe and America.

A favorite of many of the founding fathers, including George Washington and Benjamin Franklin; Madeira was used to toast the signing of the Declaration of Independence, as well as George Washington’s Inauguration. For nearly two centuries, it was coveted by the greatest collectors of the day.

However, a short time after the Civil War, Madeira wine began to wane in popularity. It was not until the early part of the 21st century that America once again embraced this fascinating wine. The Beatrice Inn is proud to offer a selection of some of the finest examples available today.”
